Framing Notes:

Some shit to think about:

1. Is one's "why" for being non-monogamous, important?
2. Is non-monogamy an orientation? A lifestyle? Both?
3. What did you make of the distinction between prescriptive and descriptive hierarchies?
4. Fern claims that non-monogamies are inherently unstable. Do you agree?
5. What is "anti-polyamory discrimination"?
